

Providing Music For Hampton Roads, Virginia Since 1971

Who we are / What we believe / What we provide

The Tidewater Concert Band has provided musical entertainment ranging from Sousa Style Marches, Big Band, Swing, Blues, Broadway Musicals, etc. in the Hampton Roads area since 1971. Currently under the direction of Maestro Chris Serrano and Associate Conductor Josiah Wilson, the band is currently made up of volunteer musicians from every walks of life including local school band directors, band students, former and current military musicians... to form a fully-instrumented top-notch professional performing organization.

The band has gone through many changes, phases and musicians throughout its long history but still continues today to provide a high quality of music and service to the Hampton Roads community. The band provides music for graduation ceremonies, as well as, local parades, family celebrations, art shows, festivals, retirement-nursing homes and concert series. The group always welcomes new performance opportunities in the 7 cities. Take this time and bring this wonderful, entertaining musical group to your venue or next event!!

Always interested in welcoming new members, The Tidewater Concert Band is open to wind players and percussionists of high school age and up. An interview and informal audition is required. School students should also have a recommendation from their band director. To set up a interview, please contact Chris Serrano at 757-717-3111 or send us a message through this website. The band rehearses every Tuesday night at 7:30 in the Fellowship Hall of Calvary Baptist Church, 2117 London Blvd, Portsmouth, Va.... in Olde Towne Portsmouth.
